

I am opposed to proposed rule changes in media ownership. Fair and unbiased new coverage would be compromised if enacted. Very few, if any, opposing views to the corporate/political agenda are presently aired in this country as it is. It is simply another sell out to money interests. Remember these are public airwaves.